

Says

Thinks

Does

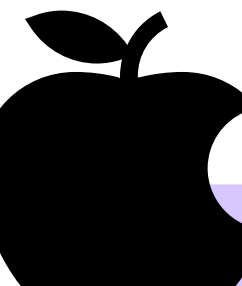

Feels

 India became Apple's fifth largest iPhone market for the first time overtaking France and Germany.

 Apple's growth story in India has been a combination of the company's "overall strategy focuusing on distribution and affordability".

 Apple iPhones could lead to more availability , job opportunities and more in the local markets.

 Apple Inc. registered a third straight quarter of "double digit growth in India.

 India's government is eager to work closely with Apple to make it possible to manufacture in the country.

 The increased production of Apple iphones in India have a postitive impact on consumers.

 The phones manufactured domestically did not meet Apple's quality criteria and ended up as a waste or recycled material.

 Apple iPhone users feels that it is famous for privacy and security.

 Buying a used iPhone is a great choice if you're on a tight budget or need to save cash.

 Apple establish a stronger presence in the country.

 Apple iPhone are offering timely and instant updates to the users.

 Apple iPhones are built to work faster and smoother with excellent internal storage.